

MycoRed sessions

2nd Mediterranean Workshop on “Mycotoxicological Risks in Mediterranean Countries:
Economic Impact, Prevention,
Management and Control”

- LCP Food, Agriculture and Fisheries, and Biotechnology Programme, 2009-2013
- “Reduction of mycotoxins in food and feed chains”
- Focus on AFL, OTA, TCT, ZEA and FUM
- Organisation of and contributions to (training) workshops and conferences (Europe, Asia, Africa, Latin America)

Session 22

- Brief introduction to the MycoRed Project
Antonio Moretti, ISPA, National Research Council (ISPA-NRC), Italy
- Economic impact of mycotoxin control
Pino Calcagni , International Nut and Dried Fruit Council Foundation (INC), Spain
- Fusarium mycotoxins: an emerging problem in dried figs
Antonio Moretti, ISPA, National Research Council (ISPA-NRC), Italy
- Risk assessment and legislation for mycotoxins
Hans van Egmond, RIKILT Institute of Food Safety, Wageningen UR, the Netherlands
- Post-harvest strategies for minimising mycotoxin contamination in food commodities
Naresh Magan, Cranfield University, United Kingdom
- Establishment of a European map on fungal and toxigenic biodiversity of the most prevalent Fusarium head blight causing species in wheat using molecular methods
Matias Pasquali, Centre de Recherche Public-Gabriel Lippmann, Luxembourg

Lunch

5-9 NOVEMBER 2012
Rotterdam, the Netherlands

wmf
MEETS
IUPAC

2012

THE *World
Mycotoxin
Forum*[®]

www.WMFmeetsIUPAC.org